We, the Undersigned Declare our Commitment and Pledge

1. TOLERANCE – To take a more active responsibility in establishing the peaceful coexistence of all religions and cultures through tolerance, respect and understanding.
2. NON-VIOLENCE – To follow Ahimsa, non-violence, as a basic principle of human ethic.
3. MULTICULTURE – To foster the awareness among people that we should preserve and cultivate our cultural and religious diversity as a richness and beauty of our existence.
4. SAFE DRINKING WATER – To provide access to safe drinking water by setting an example of how to protect our environment by preserving natural resources.
5. SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT – To promote development goals with the emphasis on issues that would lead positively toward an environmentally sustainable economy.
6. ANIMAL PROTECTION – To promote and support activities to protect wildlife and take active part in preventing the endless animal torturing and suffering.
7. EQUALITY IN EDUCATION – To foster universal primary education and gender equality as basic human rights as well as a powerful instruments for reducing poverty and inequality.
8. UNITY IN DIVERSITY – To help people of all nations to experience their oneness, believing that the only virtues that make lasting World Peace possible are Tolerance, Respect, Understanding and Love.
9. UN MILLENIUM GOALS – To undertake activities to promote and support the realisation of the Millennium Development Goals proclaimed by the United Nations in 2000.
10. "BE THE CHANGE YOU WANT TO SEE" – To uphold and apply directly to our own lives the Appeal of Mahatma Gandhi and "be the change we want to see".
11. "ONE IN ALL AND ALL IN ONE" – To put into realisation the Message of His Holiness Dharmasamrat Paramhans Swami Madhavanandaji for achieving unity and peace.

World Peace can only become a reality when all people rise above national boundaries, politics, religion and ideologies. This World Peace Summit has given hope and strengthened our resolve to replace the culture of war by a culture of peace.
